Another Record Sow

(By Associated Press)
Owenton, Ky., Mar. 11—Two sows belonging to Lester Ransdell recently gave birth to 28 pigs. One, a Chester White, had 17 and the other 11. Twenty-three of the pigs lived. Last year the same Chester White had 16 pigs to one litter and during the year farrowed a total of 30.

DR. WELCH WANTS "MYSTERIES" SOLVED

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 13—Five questions which he says are important would be investigated if a resolution introduced in the senate by Dr. T. R. Welch, of Nicholasville, were passed by both houses of the General Assembly. The resolution names Senators Pal Garner and Bannie Tabor and Representative C. A.
Nelson to inquire into "who killed cock-robin; who struck Bill Patterson; how old is Ann; who turned out the lights during the long session and who made Senator Dycus sick, when the Louisville non-emblem election bill came back vetoed by the governor. The resolution follows:
"Whereas, there are a number of mysteries surrounding the legislative body, as well as legislatures of the past, and "Whereas, these questions should be settled at once for all and settled by the votes of those who represent legislative and senatorial districts,
"Therefore, be it resolved, that

LATE NEWS NOTES

All of the political bills asked by the democrats of Louisville have been passed by the legislature, including the short ballot.
W. L. Mapother, president of the L. & N., returned to Louisville from Washington with a check for $7,000,000 in his pocket.
It was the United States settlement for war-time operation of the L. & N.

Arrest of soft drink operators in Louisville charged with selling booze still continue. Eighty-one are already in the meshes of the law.

Speaker Thompson is reported to have killed the bill to impose a tonnage tax on coal in order to secure the passage of the general tax bill.

The United States refused to sit at Genoa on account of Russia with her army of 1,000,000.

In New York bay on a shipping vessel $400,000 worth of liquor has been seized by prohibition officers.

A bill has been introduced in the Maryland legislature which forbids more rights for women than for men.

TO WARN HANDS TO WORK DIRT ROADS

The Dirt Road Committee of the Fiscal Court has made the following report and recommendations for the handling of the dirt road situation in Madison county:

Minutes of Dirt Road Committee Your committee met as ordered in the County Judge's office and after due consideration, adopted the following recommendations:

1st. That this court go back to the old system absolutely of working dirt roads of this county by warning in the local hands to be paid $1.50 per year per man and $3.00 per year for teams.

2nd. That the court appoint the best overseers possible and require them to act, and to work their respective roads before August 1st in each year.

3rd. That each member of the court strictly uphold the overseers at all times, especially in the matter of delinquent hands.

4th. That no appropriation be made on dirt roads except for bridges and culverts and the sum of $10.00 per mile for hands not exceed $1.50 per man per year, and $3.00 per team.

5th. It is shown that three districts are heavily laden with dirt roads, and it is recommended that these be given a grader each in addition to the above.

Burnam in Danville

The Danville Advocate said Saturday: Mr. Lucien Burnam, who formerly lived in Danville, where he was connected with the Internal Revenue office, was in this city yesterday mingling with his many warm friends. After a lapse of a number of years he has again entered the revenue service, but in a different capacity. He is now working under the prohibition director with headquarters in Lexington, and it is said of him that he is veritable poison to the bootlegger and makes his life exceedingly hard.
He ranks high in the estimation of those under whom he serves.
He always finds a warm welcome in Danville.
